

SCHOOL OF MINISTRY

Theology 102 - Spring 2021

Class Syllabus

Instructor: Mark Otstot

Contact email: marko@crosspointcity.com

Class Location: Annex Building, Room 106

Class Meets: Every Monday: January 25th-March 29th from 7:30-8:30pm.

Office Hours: As requested

School of Ministry Mission Statement:

“Equipping men and women to walk in their calling to accomplish the Great Commission and raise up leaders for the future “C” church.”

The School of Ministry, we want to:

- Identify (Help men and women identify their calling and gifts.)
- Equip (Train men and women in the areas of theology, biblical understanding and leadership.)
- Send (Send them out into “their” world - their community, workplace, school, church, non-profit etc.)

Attendance and Participation:

This class will consist of men and women from all ages and seasons of life as well as individuals from within our community and neighboring churches. To receive the most of your time in each class, 100% attendance and participation is strongly encouraged. The old adage, “You get out of it what you put into” is holds true for each class.

*100% attendance and participation are mandatory for all Crosspoint Interns.

Classroom Etiquette:

- Be on time.
- No phones.
- Come prepared.
- Engage in discussions.
- Be present & faithful.

Academic Continuity:

In the event of weather or other emergency situation, S.O.M. may temporarily suspend normal operations. During this time, your instructor from the S.O.M. will deliver communication regarding courses, etc. using email and/or text. It is the student's responsibility to make every effort to receive communications during a campus closure.

Academic Integrity:

A high standard of personal integrity is expected of all students. Copying another person's work, submitting downloaded material without proper references, and submitting material without properly citing the source is prohibited. Such forms of dishonesty are strictly forbidden.

Student Evaluation:

Students have the opportunity to provide anonymous feedback at the end of each semester through student course evaluations. Students will receive an email reminder from the office of the School of Ministry when it is time to complete course evaluations online. Please consider taking the time to provide this helpful input to your instructor and the School of Ministry.

Course Description:

This is the second of four courses in a general survey of Bible doctrine designed to introduce the student to the major areas of systematic theology. This course presents the following areas of doctrine: the doctrines of the person and work of Christ (Christology) and the doctrines pertaining to salvation (Soteriology).

Learning and Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- Analyze the principal agents and ideas that shape classic and contemporary systematic theology in relation to Christ and salvation
- Discuss key doctrinal terms and their definitions as they relate to Systematic Theology, Christology and Soteriology.
- Examine the classic and modern questions regarding the person and work of Christ.
- Discuss the nature and work of both Christ and the Holy Spirit in the act of salvation of man.
- Analyze and discuss the four classical theological views of the Ordo Salutis
